Office of the State Auditor
Columbia, South Carolina
and
Members of the Board of Trustees
South Carolina First Steps to School Readiness
Columbia, South Carolina

We have audited the financial statements of the governme letter to you dated June 27, 2023. Professional standards also formation related to our audit.

Qualitative Aspectsof Accounting Practices

Managements responsible for the selection and use optrapriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by First Steps are described in Note the dinancial statements. No new significant accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not significantly changed during 2023. We noted no transactions entered into by First Steps during the five which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have beergreized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all knowl/fikæly misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, dommunicate them to the appropriate level of management. For purposes of this communication, professional standards define a significant audit adjustment as a proposed correction of the financial statements that, in our judgment, may not howen detected except through our auditing procedures. An audit adjustment may or may not indicate matters that could have a significant effect on First Steps' financial reporting process (that may or may not cause future financial statements to be materially misstated). We did not propose any significant audit adjustments.

In our judgment, there were no material known unrecorded and uncorrected misstatements, either individually or in the aggregate, to each opinion unitisational statements taken as a whole.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreent with management is a financial acciting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated September 26, 2023.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situation situation involves pplication of an accounting principle to First Steps' financial statements or a redeiteration of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional starreducing the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant factsour knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as First Steps' auditor. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Matters

We applied certain limited procedures to the management's discussion and analysis, budgetary comparison schedules, schedule of proportionate share of the netopeliability – South Carolina Retirement System, schedule of contributions – South Carolina Retirement System, studies of proportionate share of the net OPEB liability – South Carolina Health Insurance Trust Fund, and schedule of contributions – South Carolina Health Insurance Trust Fund, which are required supplementary information ("RSI") that supplement the basic financial statements. Our procedures consisted of inquiries of management regardie methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We did not audit the RSI and do not express an opinion or providany assurance on the RSI.

We were engaged to report on the supplementary informationisted in the table of contents, which accompanies the financial statements but is not RSI. With respetthis information, we made certain inquiries of management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with accounting principles gealty accepted in the United States America, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the informatiappis opriate and complete in relation to our audit of the financial statements. We compared and reconciledirtfosmation to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the financial statements othe financial statements themselves.

Restriction on Use

This information is intended solely for the information auxe of the Office of the Stafeuditor, Board of Trustees, and management of First Steps and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

First Steps is also required to record its proportionshare of the net OPEB liability in accordance with GASB Statement No. 75 and represents First Steps' share of the State's net OPEB liability related to the State's Retiree Health Insurance Trust Fund. The REB liability as of June 30, 2022 was $6,993,958 and decreased to $6,181,745 at June 30, 2023. The secretary invariable to changes in actuarial assumptions used to measure the State's net OPEB plan.

Capital Assets and Lease Assets:

First Steps made acquisitions of several vehicles guine year ended June 30, 2023, which increased the net capital asset balance amounts reported from $0 to $87,344.

In addition to requiring First Steps to record letisaleilities, GASB Statement No. 87 also requires First Steps to recognize intangible right of use assets to the lease agreements. The lease assets are amortized over the term of the lease. The net leaserapsæted as of June 30, 2022 was $1,005,796, which was then amortized during the year ended Junæ 2023, resulting in an ending balance of $788,863.

Budget Highlights:

First Steps budgets State appropriation other funds (earmark, restricted and federal) as they are received during the year. First Steps' original and fibaldget for the General Fund was $9,773,753 and $9,697,353, respectively, for the year ended June 30, 2023.tual.expenditures, on the budgetary basis, totaled $7,325,734. These amounts were spent primarily on READY programs (child development programs). The total other funds final budget was $32,889. Actual expenditures, on the budgetary basis, totaled $47,181,477. These amounts were spent primarily on allocations to First Steps local county partnerships and the CDEPP programs.

Current Conditions that are Expected to have a Signicant Effect on First Steps' Financial Position:

During the 2023 state fiscal year, First Steps had a sli

The Preschool Development Grant ("PDG") ended sinal year 2023, however, First Steps received a no cost extension which will allow it to fully expend the maining funds through Ap 2024. First Steps has been notified that it will receive a new PDG for calendar 2023, that may be extended into calendar year 2024 of approximately $1.5 million. This will providends to continue many of the activities started under the original PDG Grant.

The ESSER Funds, which were received initially aspatract with the State Department of Education transitioned into a federal subrecipient agreement dulnisgfiscal year. At the end of fiscal year 2023, First Steps has just over $9.9 million still left to spend. These funds will need to be fully expended prior to September 30, 2024.

First Steps has implemented grant awards funded from the READY Grants that was provided in fiscal year 2023 from the General Assembly. By the end of the end of the three steps and the funds were obligated.

Efforts are ongoing to provide funds to maintaimasch of the increase in services as possible that were generated by both the PDG funds and the ESSER Funds.

First Steps received permanent reauthorization one 19, 2023 through Act 81 of the South Carolina General Assembly. This made several changes tots ty requirements, added one member to the Board of Trustees, and eliminated the need to be reauthorized every 5 years.
